

The logo is composed of three parts. In the foreground are the Passionist Sign and the title of the event, including some words that express the feelings of the Passionists concerning the centenary. Apart from, but within the composition, is the main theme that expresses the sense of the tercentenary — “renew our mission.”