

Communications Team, March 3

The Team held their first meeting on March 3. They discussed communications in general and that the topic is large and complex. The Team discussed the audience for communication as both inside and outside the Passionist Family of Holy Cross Province. The Team will meet every two weeks and he requested that the members think about the top 10 areas of communication as well as reaching out to the other Teams about their communication needs.