

Join the Passionists in celebrating
National Vocation Awareness Week
November 7 to 13, 2021

National Vocation Awareness Week is an annual, week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States, dedicated to promoting vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer and education – plus renewing our prayerful support of those considering one of these special vocations. The Bishops of the U.S. inaugurated this special celebration in 1976.

The Passionists invite you to join us in:

A Novena for Vocations

Special Novena Prayers are included:
Nine days of prayer for Passionist
Priestly & Religious Vocations,
from November 7 to 15, 2021,
or anytime.

A Live-Streamed Celebration of Mass for Passionist Vocations: Monday, November 15, 2021

Join in the Mass for Vocations celebrated by
Fr. John Schork, CP, from the Passionist
Community Chapel in Chicago, IL.
1:00 p.m. EST, Noon CST,
11:00 a.m. MST, 10:00 a.m. PST
YouTube Link: https://youtu.be/wb_LBhJBLH4

Exploring a variety of Vocation Resources – especially the Passionist Vocation

- The Passionists of Holy Cross Province: www.passionist.org
- The Worldwide Congregation of the Passion: www.passiochristi.org
- The National Religious Vocation Conference: www.nrvic.net
- Vision Vocation Network: www.vocationnetwork.org
- Contact Fr. John Schork, CP, Vocation Director: jschork@passionist.org

Everyday Activities to Promote Vocation Awareness

- Pray! Private prayer; Eucharistic Adoration; The Rosary; The Stations of the Cross; Intercessions at Mass, etc.
- Reach out to younger women and men who show a growing faith and a spirit of love and service; ask them: “Have you ever considered...?”; put them in contact with a vocation director.
- Get involved with / start a parish vocation committee, or The Serra Club (www.serraus.org), or your local / favorite religious community.
- Give a word of encouragement to the priests, Sisters and Religious Brothers you know.